Districts of California were made the special order for Thursday. Georgia was next in order, and Chair-man Carter remarked as he surrendered the chair to M. H. DeYoung, sotto voce, that at the present rate of progress the committee would be still in session when the convention assembled on Tuesday. Only two of the four delegates at large from this State proved to be contested. R. R. Wright (colored), who at the outset announced himself the original McKinley champion of his State, opened for the two contestants, himself and J. G. Hetherington, an adherent of Senator Allison's, and who was chosen at a second State convention held after the first one had adjourned. W. H. Smythe re-plied in behalf of the delegates attacked— J. U. Devaux and H. A. Rucker—and showed from the aworn minutes that the two hast-named were selected by acclamation, the opposition making no protest until after the convention had adjourned. This and other groof was sufficient for the committee, and by a unanimous vote Devaux and Rucker were seated.

BALTIMORE, MD., June 11.-The Democratic State Convention was called to order shortly after noon in Ford's Opera-House by H. W. Talbott, chairman of the State Central Committee. He said only a few words before introducing Hon. Arthur P. German as temporary chairman. The Senator, who had entered the half almost unobserved and taken a seat escorted to the stage, amid a volley of cheers and other demonstrations of favor. Democrats. He inveighed against Mc-Kinley and his protection ideas, urged and concluded his speech with the statement that the convention should select delegates to the national convention with a view to keeping the financial standing of the State at a high point. This senti-ment was understood to be in favor of the sound-money men, and they applauded it, while the white-metal men looked

GORMAN PERMANENT CHAIRMAN, GORMAN PERMANENT CHAIRMAN.
After the recess the Committee on Credentials and Permanent Organization reported no contests, and recommended the selection of Senator Gorman as permanent chairman. The report was unailmously adopted. The Senator, in thanking the convention for the honor, said the party would have a hard contest in carrying the State next fall, but that he would give his best energies to organizing the Democratic party of Maryland so well that the State would hereafter be found to be Democratic column.

that the State would hereafter be found in the Democratic column.

The chairman of the Committee on Resolutions reported in favor of tariff reform, as enunciated in the Chicago platform of 1892, and endorsed President Cleveland. In relation to the financial question the report favored the gold standard and opposed the free coinage of silver at 15 to 1.

The reading of the majority report was greeted with cheers and hisses. Upon its label. Mr. Stewart of Tailbott coun-The reading of the majority report was greeted with cheers and hisses. Upon its conclusion Mr. Stewart, of Taibott county, was recognized, and read the minority report, signed by five members of the Resolutions Committee, in which they gave expression to financial views directly opposed to what Mr. Stewart termed the "goldbugs," and demanded free collage of silver. The minority report was offered as a substitute for the financial plank of the majority report, Mr. Stewart making a long argument in favor thereof. While he was very entertaining, and was liberally applauded, Mr. Stewart was not convincing, and the minority report was rejected.

In the Committee on Resolutions there were but five votes opposed to a gound-money platform plank. The plank

First Virginia Wheat in the Baltimore Market.

DALTIMORE, MD., June 10.—(Special.)— The first consignment of this season's rop of southern wheat was received here to-day. The lot comprised one bag, con-taining about two bushels, and was ship-ped by T. M. Jones, of Middlesex county, a., to Gaskins & Battee, It sold for 5 cents a bushel. The wheat was a mixture of Fultz and longberry, and was very wet and not well cleaned. The color was good and the grain plump. The quantity was so small and the quality being only medium it was not possible to make any judgment of the crop. This is the earthest arrival of southern wheat in this market for several years.

BOIES AND DANIEL. Congressman Jones Thinks This Would

Make a Strong Ticket.

MR. SCOTT, DISTRICT CHAIRMAN, He Is Re-Elected Without Opposttion and Agrees to Serve Another

Term-Judge Waddill Urged to Proceed to St. Louis Without Delay.

Congressman William A. Jones, of the First District, was in the city Tuesday. and conferred with a number of Democratic leaders. He had been home after the slege at Staunton, and was on his way back to Washington. While he did not think Congress could last more than a day or two longer, he felt that it was his duty to be at his post of duty during the closing scenes of the national legislative body. During the course of his few hours stay in Richmond Mr. Jones discussed the political situation with such friends as he met. He spoke most exultantly over the great victory of the silverites at Staunton. He said that he believed tho National Democratic Convention, to be held in Chicago next month, would nominate Boles, of Iowa, for President, and Daniel, of Virginia, for Vice-President. Congressman Jones argued that a southern man of the right calibre would add great strength to the national Democratic tick-et, and remarked Senator Daniel and the the would be no trouble because of lack of harmony in this section. The "gentleman from the Pirst District" added that he felt confident that a theket headed by Boies and Daniel would be elected. Congressman Jones left on the 7:15 P. M. train Tuesday night for Washington. MR. SCOTT RE-ELECTED CHAIRMAN. The District Committee met yesterday, afternoon at the office of Mr. E. C. L. Scott. In the State Library Building. There were present Messrs. M. L. Dawson and Henry L. Carter, of Richmond, E. L. C. Scott, of Hanover, and Simon Solomon, of Henrico.

Solomon, of Henrico.

As soon as it was ascertained that Mr. Scott was willing to again serve the party as district Chirman, Mr. Marion L. Dawson, tho had been spoken of as a candidate for the chairmanship, declined to allow his name to go before the committee, and placed Mr. Scott in nomination, asking for a unanimous vote for the Hanoverian. Mr. Scott was elected without a dissenting volce.

Mr. Simon Solomon, of Henrico, was then chosen secretary.

The committee, after electing its officers, adjourned, subject to the call of cers, adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

When it is remembered that Mr. Scott is the only goldite on the District Committee, and that the other four gentlemen are silver men, the unanimous reclection of Mr. Scott is an augury of party harmony and good feeling.

ACCEPTS THE PLANCOPAL ACCEPTS THE PLATFORM

Mr. Scott, in accepting the chairman-ship, made a graceful little speech, in which he said that, although he was a gold Democrat, he accepted the platform of the Virginia Democracy as his guide. of the Virsima Democracy as his guide, and cromised to do his utmost towards promoting party harmony and in prosecuting the campaign to a successful issue. The question of nominating a Democratic congressional candidate was not broached at this meeting, and it is not known when the chairman will call a meeting for the consideration of this important matter.
